2017 Alumna of the Year

Each year at our Senior Honors Convocation, we recognize a graduate of Vandebilt Catholic, Houma Central Catholic High, or St. Francis High School who is outstanding by the manifestation of lessons about service to others, wholeness of character, and living as a Christian example learned as a Catholic school student.

The 2017 Alumna of the Year is Sister Renée Daigle.

PROUD TO BE A TERRIER!!

Chess Club

On May 6, 2017 National Chess Master, Mike Papa, met with VC Chess Club Faculty Moderator, Barbara Bourg, and club members Dyami Mitch, Porter Boudreaux and Alex Allison. Mr. Papa delivered a presentation including the history of chess, how he became a National Chess Master, some of his personal experiences as a chess player, and literature suggestions. Mr. Papa played the students in a simultaneous exhibition, whereby he played the participants at one time, moving from player to player.

Ultimate Frisbee Team

Congratulations to our Vanderbilt Ultimate Frisbee team who competed in the State Championship tournament on Sunday, May 7, 2017 at Catholic High of Baton Rouge campus. The Terriers won their quarter final match with a score of 13-8 against Catholic High's JV team to move on to the semi-final round where they competed against Catholic High's varsity team. Although we lost in the semi-final round 13-7, the Terriers played with a lot of heart and represented Vanderbilt well.

Track and Field Teams

Congrats to the girls Track and Field Team for placing third overall at the LHSAA State Track Meet at LSU on May 6, 2017.

Leanna Teuton - 4th place 3200 meter run
Eleana Callejas - 3rd place, 800 meter run

The Girls Track and Field Team also placed 1st at both the Terrebonne Parish Championship and District Championship and 2nd at the regional level.

Congrats to the Boys Track and Field Team for a great season!

Terrebonne Parish Championship: 3rd Place
District Championship: 2nd Place
Regional Championship: 3rd Place

Qualifying for State: Brennan Sonnier & Zachary Trahan in the javelin, Jacob Stoufflet in the pole vault (6th place), Ben Cazayoux in the 800m run, and the 4x200 relay team consisting of Brayden Dantin, Brennan Patterson, Ben Cazayoux, & Roland Johnson.

Bass Fishing Team

Congratulations to Brady Drury and Matthew Kappel for competing in the Louisiana B.A.S.S. Championship Tournament which was held on April 29, 2017 in the Atchafalaya Basin and Lake Verret area.

The boys fished three tournaments this year (in the Calcasieu River in Lake Charles, the Red River in Colfax and in Bayou Segnette) and they caught and weighed in fish at each tournament earning them a spot in the state championship. We are proud of them for representing Vandebilt at the state level.
