Tomorrow will be our Christmas Dress Down Day as the reward for reaching our Christmas Project Collection Day. Dress code for tomorrow is school-appropriate pajamas - no shorts, tank tops, spaghetti-strap tops, cropped shirts, or revealing or tight fitting pajamas. You may wear pajama pants and pajama shirts or footed pajamas. If you don't want to wear your PJ's, you may wear a Christmas sweater or shirt or a Vanderbilt spirit shirt and blue jeans. You MUST wear tennis shoes, no slippers.

The band and choir will be finalizing their food collection for the Terrebonne parish food bank on Monday, December 17th - items can be brought through that Monday before exams. The food bank is need of everything, so whatever you can bring will help families during the holiday season...whether you go purchase items, or bring from home - every donation will benefit our parish neighbors. Thank you for your generosity.

VC Choir and VC Theatre will be selling "You've Been Elfed" bags in the cafeteria during junior high and senior high lunch. Elf bags will include a variety of candy and will be delivered on December 17th.
